Please note

This form is to be used by former McMaster students who at their last academic review had a result of session of either “May not continue at the University” or “Required to withdraw”.

Former McMaster students who were in good standing when they last attended and who have attended a university since their last attendance must complete an application for admission to an Ontario University (105D) for full-time studies available at www.ouac.on.ca/105

All other applicants must complete one of the following:

- McMaster University Part-Time Degree Application for Part-Time Studies (Registrar.mcmaster.ca/part-timeapplication).
- McMaster University Returning Student Application Form (Registrar.mcmaster.ca/external/ches-retur.htm) for McMaster graduates or potential graduates who wish to pursue a second undergraduate degree at McMaster or for former McMaster students who voluntarily withdrew from the University more than 5 years ago.

Refer to the McMaster Undergraduate Calendar for Program Codes.

The information gathered on this form is collected under the authority of the McMaster University Act, 1976. The information is used for the academic, administrative, financial and statistical purposes of the University including, but not limited to, admissions; registration and maintaining records; awards and scholarships; convocation; provision of student services, including access to information systems; alumni; and disclosure to or on behalf of the applicable McMaster student government. This information is protected and is being collected under section 39(2) and section 42 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Ontario (RSO 1990). Questions regarding the collection or use of this personal information should be directed to the University Registrar, University Hall, room 209, McMaster University.

This application must be signed and the $100 fee attached. Please see over for additional information.
Additional Information for Applications for Reinstatement

Applicants who are applying for reinstatement must submit the following information along with their applications:

- A summary of the relevant circumstances surrounding their academic situation during the last session attended.
- Reasons for requesting reinstatement at this time.
- Reasons for selection of the program indicated.
- Activities since last registered at the University, including all academic work, with a transcript of grades received.
- Students applying for reinstatement should submit, wherever applicable, documentation attesting to extenuating circumstances which led to their ineligibility to continue studies. Letters of reference may be submitted but are not required.
- Students may improve their chances of being reinstated to a future session by taking courses elsewhere. Upon successful completion of coursework Faculties may reinstate students and assess the coursework for transfer credit.

Faculty of Business: Students applying for reinstatement to Business I, in addition to completing this form and providing the information outlined above, must also explain in writing: 1) the date when they initially notified the Academic Programs Office or their Dean's Office of their 'extenuating circumstances'; 2) with whom they discussed their situation and what advice they received; 3) what actions they took to minimize the adverse impact of the extenuating circumstances on their academic performance; and 4) whether or not the situation has been resolved.

School of Nursing: Applicants for reinstatement must also complete a supplementary information form which may be obtained from the School of Nursing.

Medical Radiation Sciences & Kinesiology: These programs will not consider students for reinstatement until a minimum of 24 units of work in a non-Medical Radiation Sciences and non-Kinesiology program have been completed. At that time a student must use an Application for Admission to Level II form.
