The requirement for admission to 3H04 or 4H04 is a cumulative grade point average of 8.

Students enrolled in 3H04 or 4H04 are required to conduct research under the supervision of a faculty member. Subject to Department approval, students are permitted to be supervised by faculty members in other Engineering departments. Subject to Department approval, students from other departments are permitted to take either course if their supervisor is a faculty member of the Department of Engineering Physics.

The research conducted for 3H04 or 4H04 is unpaid training eligible for course credit. Students may not obtain 3H04 or 4H04 course credit for the same research conducted while simultaneously employed part-time or full-time as a paid research assistant. To ensure that the research conducted under 3H04 or 4H04 is distinct from any paid research, the supervisor for 3H04 or 4H04 must be different than the employment supervisor.
