Bachelor of Engineering – Software Engineering

Computing is everywhere and changing everything we do! Computing is used to solve problems, manage information, create smart products, explore our world, and connect to other people. Software is the fuel of computing. It provides the means to control hardware with extraordinary power and flexibility. Software engineers use engineering principles to design, implement, test, and maintain computer programs and are ultimately responsible for the quality of the final product.

TOP EMPLOYERS
- ArcelorMittal Dofasco
- Ciena
- Horiba Automotive
- Intel Security (McAfee Inc.)
- RBC
- SOTI
- Sprout
- Toronto Hydro
- Trapeze Group

WHAT JOBS HAVE STUDENTS RECEIVED?
- Analytical and Automation Developer
- Software Designer
- Junior Application Programmer
- 2B2 Software Innovator
- Cloud Developer
- Jr. Project Manager
- Technical Project Manager
- IT and Service Application
- Web Developer Tester

AVERAGE SALARY
The average salary for Faculty of Engineering students on a long-term co-op for the 2016/2017 year was $23.50/hour.

HOW DO EMPLOYERS GET INVOLVED ON CAMPUS?
- Information sessions
- Career fairs
- Industry nights
- Drop-in sessions
- Off-campus field trips
- Mock interview nights
- Employer panels
- Capstone projects

BRIGHTER WORLD
eng.mcmaster.ca/eccs

Need more info? Visit our website!
eng.mcmaster.ca/co-op-career/co-op-program