

PRIYANKA CHOPRA

Civil Engineering Co-op Student, Level 2

905-525-9140

choprap@mcmaster.ca

Linkedin.com/in/choprap

HIGHLIGHTS OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Enrolled in level 2 of the 4-year Civil Engineering Co-op program at McMaster University
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills illustrated through past course work and project experiences
- Highly organized and self-motivated team player demonstrated through experience working as a sales associate in a retail environment
- Basic knowledge of AutoCAD, Microsoft Project, and blueprint reading
- WHMIS and standard first aid trained
- McMaster University training including Asbestos Awareness, Chemical Handling & Spills, Ergonomics, Ladder Safety, and Slips, Trips & Falls

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Engineering, Civil Engineering | McMaster University, Hamilton ON Expected Completion, April 2020

- Achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.9 on a 4.0 scale
- Awarded the General Motors Entrance Scholarship for female students entering the faculty of engineering

The Young Women in Leadership Job Shadow Program April 2018 Regional Municipality of Niagara, Development Engineer

- Observed and learned about the everyday business operations of a Development Engineer over the course of two days
- Interviewed and interacted with members of the department which provided the opportunity to develop a realistic view and understanding of the role

RELEVANT PROJECTS

Sustainability Report October 2017

- Analyzed the environmental, social and economic sustainability action plan of McMaster University to determine areas of improvement
- Developed creative and innovative sustainable alternatives to incorporate into a new sustainability action plan
- Collaborated in a group with three other students to present the new action plan

EXPERIENCE

Sales Associate | GUESS? Jeans May 2015 - Present

- Employed part-time during the school year working 15-20 hours a week, and full-time during the summer months
- Established customer relationships by greeting customers, determining their needs and styling them accordingly
- Maintained sales relationships with 30 plus clients, and regularly updated them on special promotions and offers through the GUESS? sales force software

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Women in Engineering Ambassador March 2017 – December 2017

- Presented to local high schools regarding engineering and the importance of women in the field
- Utilized and developed public speaking skills and approachability to inspire women to pursue engineering as a career path